

C3 CENTRE
connect ♦ collaborate ♦ create

Map of the area

Challenges facing non-profit agencies

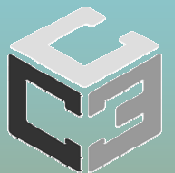

- ❖ Limited resources
- ❖ Ability to create synergy
- ❖ Motivation to embrace new ideas

What is a multi-tenant non-profit centre?

- House multiple organizations
- Provide healthy, efficient, quality, mission-enhancing workspace
- Sustainable centres for strength for communities to:

Dream Together, Work Together, and Grow Together

Shapes and Sizes

Five basic features:

- 1) Physical site
- 2) Affordable, stable workspace
- 3) Build capacity for the non-profit sector
- 4) Support the various missions of its tenant organizations

Collaborative Space and Shared services

How:

- ❖ Increasing visibility
- ❖ Lowering overhead costs
- ❖ Pioneering new initiatives

Benefit organizational tenants:

- ❖ Stability
- ❖ Affordability
- ❖ Mission enhancement

Strengthen individuals and diverse communities:

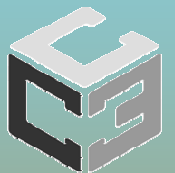

- ❖ Increasing direct program and service delivery
- ❖ Creating new hubs of economic activity
- ❖ Providing community resources

Our Shared Vision

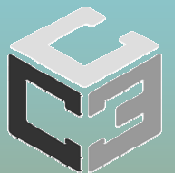

“Capacity-building agencies partnering, collaborating and co-locating with the purpose of collectively increasing and enhancing the connectivity of our capacities to network, address challenges, align and support each other towards achieving our mandate of building a stronger voluntary sector and community.”

- ❖ A “Green” work environment

C3 Centre - Goals

- ❖ Partners increase their ability to serve and deliver on their mission
- ❖ Partners in the Centre share resources, offer joint programming
- ❖ Where possible reduce duplication
- ❖ Synergy

Principles

- ❖ Positive and healthy relationships
- ❖ Decision-Making
- ❖ Collaboration and Partnership
- ❖ Shared Responsibility and Accountability
- ❖ Openness to learning

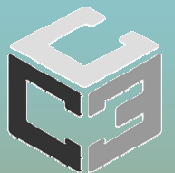

Components

Shared Spaces

- ❖ Reception, Boardroom, staff room, coat storage, business centre, and all common areas

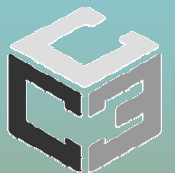

Community Spaces

- ❖ Training/meeting rooms, resource centre, kitchenette, and incubator spaces

Shared Infrastructure and Services

- ❖ Phone (voice)
- ❖ IT (data)
- ❖ Guest parking
- ❖ Security
- ❖ Business centre services
- ❖ Office supplies procurement
- ❖ Reception services

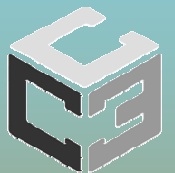

Benefits

- ❖ Shared costs on shared spaces and services
- ❖ Shared benefits:
 - Joint programming, planning and policy dialogue
 - Space, equipment and Technology
 - Human resource benefits
 - Community partnerships
 - Community Leadership
 - Purchasing power

Hoteling

- For organizations who need space for short periods
- Spaces include:
 - ❖ Desk
 - ❖ Telephone
 - ❖ Computer/Internet
 - ❖ Access to Community/Meeting Space

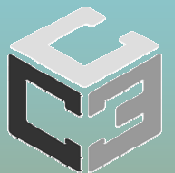

Incubators

- ❖ Space for new and emerging agencies who need space and assistance in their development
- ❖ Spaces will include:
 - Desk
 - Telephone
 - Computer/internet
 - Access to Community Space

Current Partners

- United Way Ottawa (Capacity Building Team)
- Volunteer Ottawa
- Leadership Ottawa
- Ottawa Chamber of Voluntary Organizations
- Social Planning Council of Ottawa
- ICAfrica
- Accessibility with MOXIE
- LiveWorkPlay

Are you a Capacity Building Organization interested in aligning your work with other Capacity Building agencies and the United Way to benefit the wider community?

Estimated Lease Cost

Per Workstation:

Between $300 and $385, per month

Price includes:

- ❖ Computer
- ❖ Telephone
- ❖ Access to free meeting space
- ❖ IT support
- ❖ Much more....

Contact Information

Suzanne Bray, C3 Centre Manager

Email: sbray@unitedwayottawa.ca

Telephone: 613-683-3784

www.C3centre.org

1155 Lola Street, Suite 201

Ottawa, ON K1K 4C1

